WOMEN NOT FOR MORAL UPLIFT

EQUAL suffrage is now the rule in Nevada and no carping criticisms are made by the Bonanza as to how it was accomplished and no forecast as to the effect it will have in the advancing or retarding of the movement that has been in progress for years for the elevation of politics in this state, a state that once was appellated a rotten borough, but which has in recent years been gaining an excellent repute.

The chief reason for granting the franchise to women was that it would uplift the state, cause pure men to be elected to office and elevating policies to be established and right motives interwoven into the laws. The experience in other states was overlooked by the majority of the voters that the state of destruction. And yet, in the very hight of the recent campaign, the Philadelphia Record. suffragettes raised a line and cry against Mr. Mann and against a number of congressmen who supported his measure.

The women who eagerly demanded the ballot, as the infant does the moon, falled to note the fact that at the first election held in California where the fair sex was entitled to suffrage, the matter of closing the saloons in Vernal on Sundays was the Issue. The votes against this moral movement were so overwhelming and heavy that if not a man had voted for unanimous.-Boston Transcript. closing it was still apparent that more than half the women had cast their ballots in favor of their being kept open.

Reno is a university city. It has at least one thousand male voters who might be depended upon to vote for the ordinance which was submit- Gazette-Times. ted Tuesday to reduce the number of saloons to forty and to elect a ticket opposed to the saloon men's organization, yet, despite the fact that nearly 2,000 women cast their first votes on that occasion, there were only about 1300 votes in all in favor of the ordinance and of the anti-open-town organization. Verily, the cause of John Barleycorn and of an errant Cupid as well as of Dame Fiekle Fortune, has nothing to fear from the women's

SINS OF "COMMISSION" AND OMISSION

No MATTER designed for the welfare of Nevada has been so badly managed, so hopelessly neglected and misdirected as the world's fair commission. It has even become repulsive and disgusting to Secretary of The commission has frittered away the money of the state in obtaining less good than might have been accomplished by the publication of a lot of literature and placing cylillies are more considered. displayed by people from abroad who essay to write or speak concerning this country. But it is a game that may be played from the other side of the table also. The United States is not the only place on the map. Nor are the people of this republic so fully cognizant of foreign history and geography that they should belittle the knowledge of American affairs displayed by the people from abroad.

As a matter of fact, there is a far more accurate knowledge of American geography, and the manners and customs and laws of our people, as well as of our history, possessed by people abroad, or those who have come to us from foreign shores, than we have of theirs. If one wishes, moreover, to hear a calm and dispassionate, as well as an intelligent, discussion of the present issues in Europe as well as more or less accurate conclusions regarding the cause and probable result of the war, he must listen to dis cussions by those among us who are of foreign birth.

WHY DID BOYLE APPOINT SOCIALIST?

OW in the name of all that is boly, right and proper could Governor Boyle appoint Lloyd B. Thomas as a member of the Nevada delegation to the National Child Labor Convention, which meets in San Francisco in annual session on May 27, 28 and 29? Rev. Thomas is an ordained minister of the Episcopal church. He subscribed to its tenets, one of which is patriotism of the strongest sort. He prays from the book every Sunday for the God-given protection and guidance to the President of the United States and to all others in authority. Rev Thomas then, closing his prayer book, appeals to the same author ity to overthrow constituted authority. He hobnobs with those who would wave the red flag if they felt reasonably confident that it would not causthem to be sent to jail. He defies and denies the powers that are created

Boyle appointed him to this committee, which is sacred in its nature, which the government demands shall be conducted in a manner that will make toward good citizenship. It is possible, even probable, that none of the other appointed members from Nevada will act with him on the committee. The appointment is an affront to two of the most powerful and best intending religious denominations in the state and to all good citizens,

PROSPERITY WILL RETURN

N A SPEECH at Baltimore Mr. Taft discussed the business outlook. We should be hopeful, he thought, but not extravagantly so. Business should find itself slowly and cautiously, and not build too much upon the activity produced by war orders from Europe, says the Chicago Herald. That kind of prosperity, he believed, was artificial. Afterward the permanent improvement would begin to be realized. His purpose obviously was to ware people against excessive enthusiasm for a kind of business that will suddenly be cut off when peace is restored. A more unqualified optimism was expressed a day later by Jacob Schiff, talking with reporters at Colorado Springs: "The confidence of the American people is being restored," ne said, "and I look for the return of days of prosperity the like of which has seldom been seen in this country."

One problem at a time. We haven't yet solved the mystery of the declaration of hostilities in Europe and now the mikado puts us to wondering what is wrong in the orient that ultimata should be sent and diplomatic officials recalled. Now, when the United States goes to war it publishes a Declaration of Independence, an Emancipation Proclamation, or some other tangible document that the world can read and understand.
